
SAVE THE DATE

POST-METROPOLI

An Atlas of the ongoing transformation processes
in the large urban areas of Italy

JULY 6TH, 2015

10AM-1.30PM

Rogers Hall, Politecnico di Milano

School of Architecture and Society, 3 Bonardi Street, Milan

A Seminar for the public presentation of the new website-database www.postmetropoli.it/atlante (online from the 6th of July), aimed to illustrate, disclose and discuss the content of the POST-METROPOLI Atlas. It's the result of a two years work under the Research Projects of National Interest (PRIN) 2010-11 "POST - METROPOLITAN TERRITORIES AS URBAN EMERGING FORMS: THE CHALLENGES OF SUSTAINABILITY, HABITABILITY AND GOVERNABILITY". The focus is on the ongoing transformation processes in the large urban areas of Italy - Milan, Turin, Venice, Florence, Rome, Naples, Palermo -, with a particular attention to the innovation in governance and public policies.

The PRIN, coordinated by the Politecnico di Milano, involves the University of Eastern Piedmont, the Polytechnic of Turin, the IUAV University of Venice, the University of Florence, Sapienza University of Rome, the University of Naples Federico II, the University of Palermo and the University of Sassari.

Shortly followed by the detailed program of the seminar

For information and contacts write to:

valeria.fedeli@polimi.it

francesco.curci@polimi.it
